

Michael Vadini, Founder, President, and CEO

Mr. Vadini is the founder, President, and CEO of TITAN Technology Partners. TITAN is a global provider of IT solutions comprised of planning, consulting, education and hosted/managed outsourcing products and services. TITAN is currently among the fastest growing global services firms based in the U.S., performing more than 2,000 projects for more than 400 firms globally. Mr. Vadini leads the strategic development of TITAN. He defines the vision, strategy, structure, values, and financial objectives for the firm.

Prior to founding TITAN, Mr. Vadini founded PRIMA Consulting in 1994 and led the company to become one of the largest information management consulting firms in the US. PRIMA Consulting, which offered strategic planning, enterprise systems (ERP/Supply Chain), and information management solutions, grew to 16 cities across the country with more than 300 consultants and achieved annual revenue of $50 million. In 1997, Mr. Vadini successfully sold PRIMA Consulting. For one year following the sale, he assumed the responsibility for a $140 million national consulting practice.

Prior to forming TITAN and PRIMA Consulting, Mr. Vadini spent seven years in the management ranks of the telecommunications industry with Ameritech (ticker: AIT). There he was a participant in the formation and execution of AIT's entry into the consulting field. Following his work at AIT, Mr. Vadini worked for the Strategic Management Services Group of Cincinnati Bell Information Systems ("CBIS"). While at CBIS, Mr. Vadini was responsible for client management of the Chicago region focused on the delivery of client/server solutions to the Fortune account base.

Mr. Vadini is a recognized leader and speaker in the areas of entrepreneurial business, business strategy, and IT strategy and business transformation for Fortune and mid-market firms. His expertise and leadership in the consulting arena is regularly tracked and referenced by trade press, investment community, and client base.

With twenty years of extensive IT experience, he has served as an IT Strategy Consultant to clients ranging from small/medium size to the largest multinational companies in the world. During his career, Mr. Vadini has personally led the development and execution of IT Strategy at the following companies: Dunlop-Maxfli Corporation, Proctor & Gamble, BellSouth, The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company, National City Corporation, Invacare, SCANA Corporation, Corning, Hoechst Celanese, Sara Lee, Dyersburg Fabric, Pioneer Standard Electronics, American Electric Power, Duke Power, Exel Corporation, Brunswick Corporation, JM Huber, Lydall Corporation, Michelin, OM Group, Realty One Corporation, and Piedmont Natural Gas.

Mr. Vadini holds a B.A. in Business Administration from Baldwin-Wallace College. He owns several other small companies in diverse industries including furniture, film, and real estate. Mr. Vadini is a member of the Board of Directors of the Alexander Youth Network, the Young Presidents Organization (YPO), Entrepreneurial Leadership Circle, and School of Communications Advisory Board at Elon University. He is an avid golfer.
